

NOVEMBER 2025

Our theme for November is kinship—kinship with one another; kinship with creation. This from Comanche LaDonna Harris: We have a sense of responsibility to one another, and it is reciprocal. Even in the ancient Comanche way, these kinship relationships did not have to be blood kin. The relationships were established and maintained on the basis of what you did for one another. They were based on reciprocity. We even think about animals, the Earth, the Sun, in relational terms, in kinship terms. And when one thinks of others in kinship terms, one has a responsibility for them.

PRAYER FOR NOVEMBER:

We all carry people in our hearts: family members, friends, loved ones. Many still walk the earth; some have passed beyond our sight. Today we remember them, wherever they are, for we know they are in the Creator's care. With one mind, we send greetings, and thanks, and love to them. Now our minds are one.

PRAYER PRACTICE:

Pray this prayer of Paul's over people this month: "We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father." —1 Thessalonians 1

FASTING PRACTICE:

This month, give special attention not to "other" people. Remember that God has been at work in folks' lives for a long, long time. Share the Creator's wisdom and love and stay out of the judgment business. Fast from harsh judgments of others.
